After 9 years, girls want to own their own complete facial skin care kit like real women. Good For You Girls offers a gel cleanser, refreshing toner and an oil-free moisturizer in a cute little house shaped box. No synthetics, no parabens, no petrochemicals and no dyes or irritants – this line is pure, natural and honest, Good For You Girls insists that true beauty comes from within, from respecting others and taking the time to see the beauty in people around you. Balancing ethics and good care, Good For You Girls will teach tweens how to start on a skin routine without chemicals and make it part of a wholesome approach to living.

With all these worthwhile products, your daughter can be a Diva for her special School Celebration and also learn how to maintain the natural beauty of her skin. It is important to tell girls to stay away from chemicals and the sun and learn to be wholesome both inside and out. Finding what works for you at a young age may help build self-confidence and a positive image of the world around you.
